PEOPLE

- Frances Blankenship Lowery, 80, passed away October 6, 1994. She worked for Texas Instruments for 20 years and was active in the Food Drive and other activities.

- Burt Bassham, Retiree Club president for four years, was married on November 22, 1994. He and his wife, Joyce, are living part-time in both the Woodlands and in Alvington, W.Va. Burt went to work for TI in 1956 in Planning and Receiving and later became the credit union manager.

- The Vigor newsletter welcomes your contributions. If you have any information that would be of interest to Texas Instruments' retirees, please contact Lynn Stefan, activities chairwoman, at 713-777-2805.

SPECIAL EVENTS

On December 6, 1994, the Retiree Club took a trip to the IMAX Wortham Center and the Cockrell Butterfly Center. The club members stopped at Champs for a buffet breakfast before going to the theatre.

This year, the club has an arrangement with Bayland Park for FREE bus service for its trips. If you have any ideas for future trips or activities, please call Lynn Stefan at 777-2805.

COMING IN FEBRUARY: For our February meeting, which falls on Valentine's Day, Macie Colley will be speaking. She writes for the Houston Post's Saturday edition, and has been compared to Erma Bombeck for her humorous outlook on life. Ladies will receive roses. A door prize will be awarded after each meeting.
