

Splash Day at Constellation Field - July 17, 2019

by Della DuHart

Mid-morning on Wednesday, July 17, a few of us TIHAA members gathered together in the 90+ degree heat for the Super Splash Day at Constellation Field, home of the Sugar Land Skeeters.

There were so many kids there that we seasoned seniors thought we were all at school again. We got a taste of the water from being hit by water balloons and engaging in other water game activities while cheering the Skeeters.

We enjoyed watching the kids run away from the two-legged garbage can. In all we had a fun time.

The Long Island Ducks quacked and quacked and quacked and quacked and won with a score of 9 to 8.

What a Super Splash Day it was.

Free tickets for the Skeeters games this year were provided, as usual, by the City of Sugar Land and distributed by Mary Brown and Della DuHart. The tickets were good for all regular home games through the end of the season. Some of our other members attended games on a different date.
